Purpose of agreement

The purpose of this agreement is to document a personalised and self-directed support arrangement between _____ and DFM Financial which provides the service user the flexibility and authority to determine the participant's chosen supports to achieve the participant's potential/aspirations and control their own life. DFM Financial agrees to provide the services or support outlined in this Service Agreement. Any changes to the services and/or support listed in this agreement will require prior authorisation from all parties.

We have adopted the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) contained in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (the Privacy Act). The NPPs govern the way in which we collect, use, disclose, store, secure and dispose of your Personal Information. If you'd like a copy of this policy please ask.

Description of Supports

DFM Financial agrees to provide the participant with Plan Management activities including:

- Developing monthly statements and claiming payments from the NDIA
- Financial services including the setup and maintenance of a system to establish payment arrangements with providers and monthly processing
- Liaison between the NDIS and suppliers to ensure efficient processing of payments
- Electronic filing of invoices for each supplier you do business with

The supports and their prices are set out in the Schedule of Supports.

Client Rights and Responsibilities

Whilst accessing services outlined in this Agreement as a client of DFM Financial, I, _____

or my Representative:

- Have the right to nominate, in writing, an advocate or guardian, who will act in my interests and accept the responsibilities imposed under this agreement;
- Have the right to be treated with dignity and respect and to have my choices and aspirations supported as far as is reasonably possible;
- Have the right to determine the type and range of activities that I wish to participate in;
- Have the right to request services in accordance with my support plan, provided the request is also in accordance with all applicable legislation;

- Have the right to participate in the development of my support plan acknowledging that the cost of supports arising from that plan must be able to be met within the funding available for this support (unless I have other income sources). Any support plan will be reviewed annually or can be reviewed upon request by me or DFM Financial at any time;
- Will ensure that invoices are sent to me for approval if I wish to approve prior to submitting to DFM Financial for payment,
- Will ensure that invoices are correctly reflecting reasonable and necessary supports,
- Will advise DFM Financial immediately if my NDIS Plan is suspended or replaced by a new NDIS plan, or if I stop being a participant in the NDIS,
- Have the right to privacy and confidentiality and in keeping with the Health Records Act 2001, to request access to any health information kept by DFM Financial.

As a client I _____ or my Representative, will:

- Treat staff and other clients with courtesy and consideration at all times;
- Respect the needs and opinions of all clients and staff;
- Keep DFM Financial informed of any changes in my personal life such as where I live and any changes in circumstances ie. Phone numbers, email, address etc;
- Work cooperatively with DFM Financial regarding issues arising during the development and delivery of support and activities covered by this agreement;
- Adhere to the budgetary requirements of my service plan;
- Provide DFM Financial with one months' advance notice of intention to leave the service;
- Participate in the development and regular review of my support plan.

Responsibilities of DFM Financial

In agreeing to provide this support arrangement DFM Financial:

- Will respect the rights of the participant to determine the range and types of activities they wish to participate in;
- Will treat the participant with courtesy and respect;
- Will communicate openly and honestly in a timely manner;
- Will work cooperatively and in line with the principle of least restrictive alternative with the client and the activities they have chosen to undertake;

- Will prepare a support plan (see on pages 7 and 8) with the client that outlines the activities they will undertake and the support to be provided by DFM Financial. A copy of the support plan will be provided to the client (and his/her guardian or advocate where applicable);
- Will treat information about the client and their activities as private and confidential in line with the client's wishes and with privacy legislation;
- Will be responsible for ongoing liaison with the relevant funding body regarding the development and operation of the support arrangement;
- Will be responsible for the management and reporting of funding;
- Will receive, where applicable on behalf of the client, their allocated funding, and provide advice and reports as to the client's budget and any income and expenditure at least quarterly and upon request at any time;
- Will advise the client of any sector-wide or DFM Financial developments that may affect the way support is provided;
- Will listen to the participant's feedback and resolve problems quickly,
- Will provide bookkeeping services in a manner consistent with all relevant laws, including the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013 and rules, and the Australian Consumer Law,
- Will provide the client with one month's notice of intention to cease service provision.

Complaints and Disputes

DFM Financial recognises that clients and their carers have a right to provide feedback to our staff, management and Directors to raise suggestions, resolve grievances and commend good performance and encourages all clients to speak up when they are not happy.

If the client has a complaint DFM Financial Complaints Policy will be followed. A copy of our Complaints Policy will be provided with this service agreement.

The Disability Act 2006 requires that DFM Financial must:

- Have a clear process for managing complaints about our services;
- Ensure the people we support know how to raise a complaint; and
- Report every year to the Disability Services Commissioner about the number of complaints we receive and how we managed these complaints.

Service Fees and Payments to Provider

The Schedule of Supports outlines the cost of services that DFM Financial will provide. DFM Financial will seek payment for their provision of supports for each month services are provided. The NDIS will pay DFM Financial directly. This is shown as ‘Choice and Control’ under the Portal and in your NDIS Plan.

Quality Assurance/Annual Evaluation

To monitor the quality of the outcomes relevant to the aim of this service agreement, the client with the participant’s representatives and DFM Financial may participate in a quality assurance process at some stage throughout the life of the NDIS Plan. Each party will independently complete a quality/evaluation document. A consultative meeting will then be held to discuss any issues arising or changes that might be requested.

Review and Audits

Recognising that DFM Financial has a legal obligation to participate in government-initiated reviews and audits the client and the participant’s representatives agree to co-operate to the extent reasonably necessary for these to take place subject to discussion of the relevance of the audit to the client’s situation.

SERVICE AGREEMENT AND TERMS OF BUSINESS

Changes to this Service Agreement

If changes to the supports or their delivery are required, the parties agree to discuss and review this Service Agreement. The parties agree that any changes to this Service Agreement will be in writing and signed and dated by the parties.

Ending this Service Agreement

Should either party wish to end this Service Agreement they must give one month's notice.

If either party seriously breaches this Service Agreement the requirement of notice will be waived.

Feedback, Complaints and Disputes

If the participant wishes to give the provider feedback, the participant can talk to Shannon Garner or Rachal Simpson, Plan Managers on 1300 725 071 or ndis@dfmgroup.com.au

If the participant is not happy with the provision of supports and wishes to make a complaint, the participant can talk to Shannon Garner or Rachal Simpson, Plan Managers on 1300 725 071 or ndis@dfmgroup.com.au.

If the participant is not satisfied or does not want to talk to either one of these persons, the participant can contact the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission 1800 035 544 or visit ndiscommission.gov.au for further information.

If you are not satisfied with the NDIS Commission's response, you can raise your concerns with Office of the Commonwealth Ombudsman.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

For the purpose of GST legislation, the parties confirm that:

- A supply of supports under this Service Agreement is a supply of one or more of the reasonable and necessary supports specified in the statement included, under subsection 33(2) of the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013 (NDIS Act), in the participant's NDIS Plan currently in effect under Section 37 of the NDIS Act;
- Supplies of various disability supports are GST-free under provisions in Subdivision 38-B of the as New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (the GST Act) if the supplier receives government funding for the supplies. The GST Act ensures that certain supplies to a participant are GST-free if the supply is of a kind determined by the Disability Services Minister and the supply meets the other conditions in Section

38-38 of the GST Act. Broadly, Section 38-38 also requires that the supply is of one or more reasonable and necessary supports specified in the participant's plan and that it meets certain substantiation requirements.

- The participant's NDIS Plan is expected to remain in effect during the period the supports are provided; and
- The participant/representative will immediately notify the provider if the participant's NDIS Plan is replaced by a new Plan or the participant stops being a participant in the NDIS.

Provider Charges

Note the NDIS pays for these supports separately. Prices increase when the NDIS allows, usually once per financial year.

Communication

Aids and Devices Help people with complex communication needs communicate, by supporting or replacing their speech. There are high technology options which use computers and specialised software and include speech generating devices. These allow an individual to produce or select messages for communication. Low technology options include simple technologies, communication boards or communication books. These options show pages of pictures and/or letters and words that a person with complex communication needs can point to in order to communicate (also see PODD communication books).

Community-Based Supports Services or supports within communities that can be used by everyone; eg, this might be a health service or home cleaning.

Community Access A service which supports people to go to local places and community activities such as social groups, libraries and general community services.

Complaints Policy A document that talks about the steps a service will take when a person makes a complaint about them. It also talks about what the person who is making the complaint has to do.

Day Services Provide daytime support for people in their communities. Activities vary between day service centres as they're based on individuals' choices and interests and include swimming, art and music programs and woodwork.

Disability Act 2006 Talks about the rules and guidelines that disability services have to follow. The Act talks about things like the rights and responsibilities of people with disabilities and rules for services (Applies to Victoria only).

Disability Support Register Is a system that records information about a person's support needs. This helps keep track of who needs what so that when services and resources become available, they can be given to people in a way that is fair and happens more quickly.

Easy English An Easy English document is one that is written in simple and plain language so that it is easy to understand. More documents that are produced by the Government are now being offered in Easy English.

Evaluation the process used to describe the process of measuring the value or worth of a program or service.

Formal Supports Are those that people pay for. Formal supports might be community-based (like paying for house-cleaning through a local council) or might be disability specific (like paying for a support worker).

Guardian A person who has been given the legal power to make important personal decisions on behalf of another adult. This might include decisions about where the person should live or what kind of health care and services the person should have.

Independent Living Training Service	Provides support to people who want to gain skills and confidence in a range of activities, which will allow them greater independence and control in their day-to-day lives.
Informal Supports	Supports offered by family and friends and others in the community.
Local Area Coordinators (LAC)	Work to increase community inclusion and support people with disabilities. They connect participants with mainstream services and local, community based supports and help participants to realise their plan by building individual and informal support capacity. They provide information to those people who are not eligible as participants of NDIS about other appropriate services.
Outcome	A measurable positive change in the well-being of a participant supported through NDIS which is attributable to the interventions or services they have received.
Participant	A person with a disability who is eligible to receive care and support through the National Disability Insurance Scheme and who is utilising, or who has utilised, a service.
Planner	A NDIS Planner works with participants to identify support needs including access to mainstream supports and community life to enable a good life and enable progress with the participant's goals and aspirations.
Policies and Procedures Manual	Talks about how a service should run. It should also have information available about how the service will respond in certain situations such as when someone makes a complaint.
Power of Attorney	A document by which a person appoints someone else, usually a trusted family member or friend, to act as their agent with authority to deal with and manage their property and other financial affairs.
Registered Disability Service Providers	Are agencies that are funded by DHS to provide services for people with a disability. These services must follow the guidelines in the Disability Act 2006. A list of all registered services can be found on the Department website. It is called the Register of Disability Service Providers (Applies to Victoria only).
Residential Care	Is provided to people with a disability who cannot live independently at home and who have been assessed as needing this care.
Respite	Respite care services help carers take breaks from their caring role. A range of respite care services are available, including respite in the person's home, in a day care centre in the community or in a residential facility. Respite can be provided by family members, friends, neighbours or trained workers.
Self-Determination	The entitlement of people to have control over their destiny and to be treated respectfully – it is founded in International Rights law.

Service Provider Organisation, business or individual that offers service to others in exchange for payment.

Support Is the process of looking at a current support plan to see if there need to be any changes. This should happen at least every three years, or a participant can ask NDIS to have a review at any time.
